ANNOUNCEMENTS

The Chicago Stock company, an organization new to local theatregoers opened a week's engagement at the Davis pesterday, with George V. Hobart'se melody play "Buddies," and the opinion of the humble scribe is the same as many remarked in the lobby at the conclusion of the performance last ovening, "the company is the best ever seen here in reperiors.

"Buddies" originally played a year's engagement at the Sciwyn theatre in New York, ecored a big hit here last year as advanced prices and this is its first production at popular prices. It is a sort of our "heroes" in France after the big war was over and every mon \( t \) of their actions and deligatiful songs that were introduced were liberally applauded "Buddies" is the sort of play that one can see ever and over agula acd always enjoy.

The leading lady, Miss Dorothy Howard is an excomer to Norwich and by her splendid interpretation of Julie won her way into the hearts of local theatregoers.

Miss Howard is sure to become very secular during the week W James Bedeil is the leading lady, Miss Dorothy Howard for the play "Hele to Home," which scored a big hit. Fred James registered a barrel of laughs as abby and Alec Schmutzer drew forth a few tears in the next of Ruke, who recally be and news from home. "Quo Vadis" is accredited by all who have seen it, with being the most marvellous motion picture spectacle of the century. It has created a sensation wherever it has been shown. For scope, magnitude, extravagant, splendor, realism, thrills and sensation, it is said the picture has never been equalled. The beautiful love story of the pagan yinking for the Christian girl Lygia, is related with remarkable fidelity, and the companion love story of Petronius and Eunice, his slave is also faithfully shown.

The trials of the early Christians, the vain and cruel temperament of the wicked tyrant Nero and his courtlers, which ware so graphically drawn by the author, are illustrated on the screen with remarkable variety.
